

UNIT 7 Vocabulary practice

Charity work

1 Complete the sentences with the correct forms of suitable verbs.

Henry is trying to raise money for a shelter in Namibia.

- If I won the lottery, I would a lot of money to charity.
- Would you like to me for the two-kilometre swim that I'm doing for charity?
- It's essential that we awareness of the number of homeless people in our city.
- In June 2013, 800,000 people part in a march in Brazil. They were protesting against the amount of money being spent on the World Cup and the quality of public services.
- I'm going to to help out at the local animal shelter.

Compound nouns

2 Complete the compound nouns.

I'd like to work for an animal charity when I finish university.

- Mr Capello teaches physics in an inner-city in the middle of Barcelona.
- It's important that we continue to fund cancer so that we can develop a cure.
- The police are concerned about a possible terrorist
- My brother plays on computer all day.
- There are so many ice cream available. I can't decide which one to have!
- Last year, Jake was a junior. This year, he's a high school

Issues & action

3 Complete the text with one noun in each space.

What issues are you most concerned about, and what action are you taking?

I worry about animal rights because we treat animals so cruelly. I have a T-shirt with a (1) on it saying 'Fur is not fair'. I'm also organizing a (2) for an animal charity – so far, we have over 800

Personally, I'm most concerned about the recent (3) – the government has reduced the money it gives to hospitals. I took part in a (4) in the town square last week – over 400 of us gathered there and then we went on a (5) through the streets to the government buildings. We carried (6) that said 'Save our hospitals'.

4 Translate the sentences into your language.

- A human rights activist organized the rally.
- Recent education cuts have led to protests in the city.
- The demonstrator gave a petition for gender equality to the council.
- The protesters took part in a march demanding workers' rights.

Consolidation

5 Correct the mistakes in the sentences. One sentence is correct.

Mari decided to go ~~over~~ the march. on

- Since the start of the year, there's been a crime waving in this area.
- The news made Jan very angry – it made his blood freeze.
- Harry did a tattoo when he was eighteen.
- Some students are taking part in a sit-on at the university tomorrow.
- The cake was still raw inside – I anticooked it.
- Paul donated some money because he thought the charity was a worthy because.
- The inventor of the internet was Tim Berners-Lee.
- When Wendy started college she felt very self-consciousness.

6 Complete the sentences with your own ideas.

I think that the death penalty is always unethical in any circumstances.

- I'd like to do some voluntary work at
- I think that the most important social issue is
- I believe that is a very good cause because
- Discrimination against is a problem in our society because
- In the future, I think that artificial intelligence will
- An example of inequality in our society is
- I think that racism is in our society.

